

REAGAN FANS . . . This is the way it looked Saturday when Ronald Reagan made one of his last major campaign stops at the Del Amo Shopping Center. One of the largest crowds to gather for a candidate in recent years cheered as Reagan and other Republican candidates were introduced. Others with the campaign party included Chuck Connors and Roy Rogers and Dale Evans. (Press-Herald Photo by Mike Eggers)

South Has Own 'Little Rascal'

There's a Little Rascal running loose on the South High campus.

She's Mrs. Betty Gutter, director of the audio-visual program at South High. And the Spartans couldn't have picked a better qualified person to distribute motion pictures at the school.

Mrs. Gutter and two of her sisters have made more than 100 motion pictures — and many of them are being shown today on television.

ONE OF FIVE children, Mrs. Gutter came to Hollywood in 1934 after the death of her father. The family made the trip from Salt Lake City to Hollywood in a 1929 Model A Ford and went almost immediately to the Hal Roach Studios.

Three of the girls, Betty, Doris, and Gwen, were put to work in the "Our Gang" comedy series. They were known as the Brian Sisters and can still be seen in "Our Gang" re-runs — under the title "Little Rascals" — on television.

The three sisters worked in motion pictures for 10 years, playing with such stars as Shirley Temple, Milton Berle, and Bing Crosby. They recorded "Swinging on a Star," one of the hit recordings of the time.

HIGHLIGHT of their Hollywood career came in a picture for R. K. O., "Love Affair," with Irene Dunn and Charles Boyer. The Brian Sisters introduced the song "Wishing" in that film.

The sisters abandoned their movie career in 1944 to get married and raise their family.

Mrs. Gutter and sister Doris both earned teaching degrees at the University of Southern California. Doris is now teaching and raising her family in Ogden, Utah, and Gwen is a housewife in Alhambra, Calif.

MRS. GUTTER joined the staff of the Torrance Unified School District in 1957 and a year later became director of the South High audio-visual program. She lives in Torrance.

HEY, THAT'S ME . . . Mrs. Betty Gutter, director of the audio-visual program at South High, recalls the days when she was a movie star. Mrs. Gutter and two sisters were in more than 100 motion pictures, including many of the "Our Gang" comedies. She watches her old movies once in a while on the television re-runs—"Little Rascals."
